

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

Assistant Dean for Academic Success

POSITION OVERVIEW:

New York Law School, a dynamic urban law center in the heart of Tribeca, is seeking an Assistant Dean for Academic Success. Our longstanding institutional commitment to our students' academic success has produced a curriculum with significant components designed to help each individual student's academic development. In this newly created position, the Assistant Dean for Academic Success will lead the design and implementation of strategies and programs to enhance student learning, so that students can perform more effectively in their law school courses and on the bar exam. In particular, working under the direction of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, and in conjunction with the Academic Support Committee and the Curriculum Committee, the Assistant Dean for Academic Success will lead a process to identify optimal approaches, in both the curricular and co-curricular components of academic support, for communicating a cohesive institutional message to students about their learning goals and methods throughout their time in law school. The Assistant Dean for Academic Success also will work to provide faculty with creative approaches they may use to enhance the performance of underperforming students as part of an overall institutional teaching and learning strategy. The Assistant Dean for Academic Success also will teach appropriate courses.

This is a senior administrative position with the possibility of faculty status, depending on qualifications, experience, and performance.

REQUIRED EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- J.D. from an accredited law school and bar admission
- A strong history of relevant teaching / program planning experience
- A strong commitment to service and evidence of ability to work well with faculty, students and staff in a variety of settings are essential.
- Effective and professional written and oral communication skills.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS:

Compensation is highly competitive and commensurate with experience and includes a full range of benefits and support for professional development.

TIMELINE:

Available to begin immediately.

ABOUT NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL:

Founded in 1891, New York Law School (NYLS) is an independent law school located in the heart of New York City's legal, government, financial, and emerging tech centers. Known as "New York's law school," NYLS embraces the city as its classroom by complementing a rigorous legal education with an innovative and diverse set of "uniquely New York" experiential learning opportunities. Since opening its doors, NYLS has produced graduates who have gone on to hold high elected and appointed office in the City, lead large and small firms, and gain broad recognition as captains of business and industry. Its renowned faculty of prolific scholars has built the School's strength in key areas of the law, including business and finance; government and public interest; and intellectual property, media, technology, and applied sciences. NYLS has more than 18,000 graduates and currently enrolls approximately 900 students in its full-time, part-time, and Two-Year Honors J.D. programs. The School also offers an advanced-degree program in Tax Law.

HOW TO APPLY: Candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and salary requirements to William P. LaPiana, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Student Engagement, at William.LaPiana@nyls.edu

New York Law School is an Equal Opportunity Employer