

CHINA-EU Law Journal

Journal of the China-EU School of Law
at the China University of Political Science and Law

Call for Papers

The China-EU Law Journal (CELJ) is a peer-reviewed publication bringing together Chinese, European and international perspectives on law.

The scope of the journal includes, but is not limited to, the following topics:

- Chinese law
- European legal developments of specific importance to China
- The law of China-EU relations
- China and Europe in a globalizing world.

CELJ welcomes comparative and interdisciplinary approaches. Studies on Chinese law from a European perspective and studies on European law from a Chinese perspective are of particular interest.

CELJ accepts articles presenting genuine research findings as well as reports and book reviews.

For further information and submission guidelines please visit:
www.editorialmanager.com/celj

Editors-in-Chief: FANG Liufang, Ninon COLNERIC

Associate Editor: Björn AHL

Editorial Board: Stéphanie BALME, CHEN Weizuo, Hinrich JULIUS, Stefan MESSMANN, Knut PISSLER, Andrea WECHSLER

This document has been produced with the financial assistance of the European Union. The contents of this document are the sole responsibility of the China-EU School of Law at the China University of Political Science and Law and can under no circumstances be regarded as reflecting the position of the European Union.