

CALL FOR PAPERS

ACS First Annual Constitutional Law Scholars Forum

FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 2015

Orlando, FL

The student chapter of the American Constitution Society at Barry University School of Law is hosting the First Annual Constitutional Law Scholars Forum at the Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law Campus, 6441 East Colonial Drive, Orlando, FL 32807.

The Constitutional Law Scholars Forum invites scholarly proposals on constitutional law at any stage of pre-publication development, from the germination of an idea to the editing stage. The Forum also invites presentations on innovative approaches to teaching constitutional law in the classroom. Participants may present a paper, teaching technique, or both. The Constitutional Law Scholars Forum provides an opportunity for scholars and educators to vet their work-in-progress and pedagogical innovations in a welcoming, supportive environment.

Submissions will be considered until January 15, 2015.

Barry University School of Law is located within close proximity to recreational activities: Universal Studios, Disney World, Epcot Center, Sea World, world class golf courses, and beaches. Orlando offers an average temperature of 78°F in March.

The Constitutional Law Scholars Forum is a unique opportunity to combine a positive educational experience with a relaxing vacation. There are no conference fees, but participants are expected to pay their own travel expenses.

Abstract Submissions:

Abstracts and descriptions of the teaching techniques presentation should be emailed to Ms. Fran Ruhl, Program Administrator, at fruhl@barry.edu, with "Constitutional Law Scholars Forum" in the subject line.

Conference Organizer:

Professor Eang Ngov, engov@barry.edu, office (321) 206 -5677, cell phone (571) 643-2691