More details:

Please arrive by 8:00a.m. This is a full day conference, so hydrate and get ready to collaborate. We will provide breakfast, lunch and snacks. A thumbdrive with materials will be given at the beginning of the conference, so you may want to bring your computer to take notes, but this is not required. The day is organized with larger presentations to build context and then smaller break out discussion groups led by more experienced clinical professors. The smaller break out groups provide time for you to ask questions and collaborate.

We hope to make your conference a great experience. If you have any concerns or questions, please do not hesitate to contact: Cindy Batt cbatt@law.stetson.edu or Chrissy Cerniglia cecernig@loyno.edu In case you need assistance during the day of the conference, here is Chrissy's cell number: (504) 444-5127.
