Recent Developments in Two-Sided Markets in US and Canada

Thursday, January 24, 2013
12:00 – 1:15 PM Eastern Time

The Canadian Competition Bureau has recently brought cases that raise two-sided market issues. In the US, issues related to two-sided markets have arisen in new areas, such as the investigation of Google. This program will discuss the legal and economic issues associated with these recent cases, comparing the approaches taken in the US and Canada and in different industries.
