

CALL FOR PAPERS

AMERICAN
CONSTITUTION
SOCIETY FOR
LAW AND POLICY

Barry University Law School Student Chapter &
Texas A & M University School of Law

Constitutional Law Scholars Forum

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 2018

Orlando, FL

The student chapter of the American Constitution Society at Barry University School of Law and Texas A&M University School of Law are hosting the Third Annual Constitutional Law Scholars Forum at the Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law Campus, 6441 East Colonial Drive, Orlando, FL 32807.

The Constitutional Law Scholars Forum invites scholarly proposals on constitutional law at any stage of pre-publication development, from the germination of an idea to the editing stage. The Forum provides an opportunity for scholars and educators to vet their work-in-progress in a welcoming, supportive environment. (The Forum is not accepting proposals from students at this time.)

The deadline to submit proposals is December 1, 2017.

Barry University School of Law is located within close proximity to recreational activities: Universal Studios, Disney World, Epcot Center, Sea World, world class golf courses, and beaches. Orlando offers an average temperature of 78°F in March/April.

There are no conference fees and meals are provided, but participants are expected to pay their own travel expenses.

Abstract Submissions:

Email proposals to Professor Eang Ngov, engov@barry.edu, with "Constitutional Law Scholars Forum" in the subject line. Submissions should include a short abstract (300 words maximum) and biography (150 words maximum).

Conference Organizers:

Professor Eang Ngov, engov@barry.edu, office (321) 206-5677, cell phone (571) 643-2691
Professor Meg Penrose, megpenrose@law.tamu.edu