

AMERICAN
CONSTITUTION
SOCIETY FOR
LAW AND POLICY

*Barry ACS Student Chapter & Law Review &
Texas A&M University School of Law*

Constitutional Law Scholars Forum

Friday, February 28, 2020

Orlando, Florida

CALL FOR PAPERS

The student chapter of the American Constitution Society and Law Review at Barry University School of Law and Texas A&M University School of Law are hosting the Fifth Annual Constitutional Law Scholars Forum at the Barry University Dwayne O. Andres School of Law campus in Orlando, Florida.

The Constitutional Law Scholars Forum invites scholarly proposals on constitutional law at any stage of pre-publication development, from the germination of an idea to editing with a journal. The Forum provides an opportunity for scholars and educators to vet their work-in-progress in a welcoming, supportive environment. (The Forum is not accepting proposals from students at this time).

The deadline to submit proposals is December 1, 2019.

Barry University School is located within close proximity to recreational activities: Universal Studios, Disney World, Epcot Center, Sea World, world class golf courses, and an average temperature of 72-78°F in February/March.

There are no conference fees and meals are provided.

Abstract Submissions:

Email proposals to Professor Eang Ngov, engov@barry.edu, with "Constitutional Law Scholars Forum" in the subject line. Submissions should include a short abstract (300 words maximum) and biography (150 words maximum). Please include abstract and biography together on one page in Word format.

Conference Organizers:

Professor Eang Ngov, engov@barry.edu,
Office Phone: (321) 206-5677; Cell Phone: (571) 643-2691
Professor Meg Penrose, megpenrose@law.tamu.edu