

“Father Chief Justice” Edward Douglass White and the Constitution

*The Law Library of Congress Presents
A Play Preview by Paul R. Baier, Professor of Law
Paul M. Hebert Law Center, Louisiana State University*

Tuesday, March 8, 2011, 2 to 3:30 pm

Coolidge Auditorium, Jefferson Building, Library of Congress, 101 Independence Ave SE, Washington, DC 20540

Come experience a veritable New Orleans style jazz funeral depicting:

- Captain Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. facing death in the Valley of Antietam
 - Justice Holmes sitting in his living room on Constitution Day
 - Chief Justice White’s “Voice of the Fireside” at the Willard Hotel

Playwright and law professor Paul R. Baier takes you behind the scenes in the role of Professor Richard Henry Jesse, a close friend of Chief Justice White.

This Mardi Gras inspired play preview features:

Charles J. Cooper as Chief Justice White

Ronald S. Flagg as Justice Harlan

Tom Goldstein as Justice Brandeis

Donald A. Hoffman as Justice Holmes

Roberta I. Shaffer as Fanny Holmes

Jacob A. Stein as Justice Holmes

Celebrate and share the joy of life lived to its top!

RSVP – tada@loc.gov or call Tynesha Adams at 202-707-5065

Please request ADA accommodations five business days in advance at: 202-707-6382 (voice/tty) or email ada@loc.gov

www.loc.gov/law

The Friends of the Law Library of Congress, a 501(c)(3) organization, is a vibrant group of volunteers who seek to stimulate interest in and expand awareness of the Law Library of Congress, which is the world’s largest, most comprehensive collection of legal information. The Friends gratefully acknowledge the support of the following in helping them to make this event possible:

Georgetown University Law Center • LexisNexis • Louisiana Bar Foundation • Supreme Court Historical Society • Supreme Court of Louisiana Historical Society • Wolters Kluwer Law & Business