

Medical Liability in the Digital Age

Hybrid conference on current international developments in the field of liability for medical services and healthcare with a particular focus on challenges posed by the advance of digital technologies

Date: 28 September 2023

Location: University of Innsbruck (Innrain 52), UNO Saal (1st floor, room # 1119) or via live stream

Programme

10:00 Opening of the conference

Bernhard A. Koch (University of Innsbruck):
Introduction

Ewa Bagińska (University of Gdańsk):
A Call for Risk-based Liability for Adverse Effects of Advance Therapy Medicinal Products – Hospital Exemption (ATMP-HE)

Ken Oliphant (University of Bristol):
Liability for Black-Box Medicine: Fault, Risk or Social Solidarity?

12:00 Lunch break

13:00 Israel Gilead (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem):
Extending Fault-based Medical Liability by Notions of Enhanced Protection of Autonomy and of 'Evidential Loss'

Giovanni Comandé (Scuola Universitaria Superiore Pisa):
AI and Health Care Related Liability Between Old and New Paradigms

14:45 Coffee break

15:15 Christopher Robinette (Southwestern Law School):
A Restatement of the Law of Medical Liability

Speakers and other members of the European Group on Tort Law:
Round Table:
Medical Liability in the Digital Age – Need for Reconsideration?

17:00 End of conference

Registration

Participation is free of charge, but subject to registration at

<https://www.uibk.ac.at/fz-medizinrecht/fz-medr/medical-liability-in-the-digital-age.html>

